

Leave our XM Radio broadcasting alone as it is the only viable link we have that is static free and nation wide.

This is invaluable as a tool when we are entering a congested area and do not have time to search for a local station which gives traffic conditions and road work areas